

Senior IDAM – ForgeRock Software Engineer

Reference:

LH-04071

Closing Date

25.07.2025

Description

You must be an Australian citizen.

You should be eligible to obtain NV1 clearance, when sponsored by us.

Responsibilities

Key duties and responsibilities

The duties & responsibilities of the IDAM Engineer are:

- Support the delivery of a transformational new user registration process;
- Guidance and advice as part of the implementation of the transformational new user registration process;
- Work with AUSTRAC SMEs on ForgeRock component configurations, service checks and ensure service stability for current and future workloads;
- Design, develop, test & implement identity management frameworks, systems and protocols;
- Develop, implement and manage IAM systems including: SSO, authentication and access controls to ensure security, confidentiality, integrity and availability of IAM systems and data.
- Develop and manage patterns for application deployment that manage security at every level.
- Ensure that all procured and / or developed IAM systems are implemented properly and function as intended.
- The IDAM Engineer will have the following skills and experience:

Mandatory

- Minimum 2 years of hands on experience with the ForgeRock Identity platform (including Access Management and Identity management modules)
- Experience working in a secure government environment (federal, state or similar)
- Extensive hands on experience with identity and access management, including;
 - Open standards;
 - Best practices and procedures; and
 - Various software solutions.
- Design, implementation and maintenance experience with the ForgeRock product suite.
- Experience performing deployments in highly secure and highly available environments.
- Extensive experience in troubleshooting, identifying and resolving technical identity and access management related issues.

Hiring organization

AUSTRAC

Employment Type

Contractor

Beginning of employment

Mid-late August 2025

Duration of employment

Initial contract of 12 months with possible one extensions of 12 months.

Job Location

ACT, NSW

Remote work possible

Working Hours

40 hour per week.

2 days in the office.

3 days from home.

Base Salary

$ 1200 - $ 1500

Desirable

- Experience in continuously improving identity and access management solutions and systems for protection against evolving threats.
- Knowledge of automation and Dev/Ops practices.
- The ability to work collaboratively with business driven project teams as well as infrastructure teams

Location of services: Sydney and/or Canberra

Clearance required: NV 1

Contacts

Please address each selection criteria (mandatory and desirable) for this role.